prevost

Prevost training
a real added value for all!

PREVOST PIPING SYSTEM

40 m

25 m

3 m
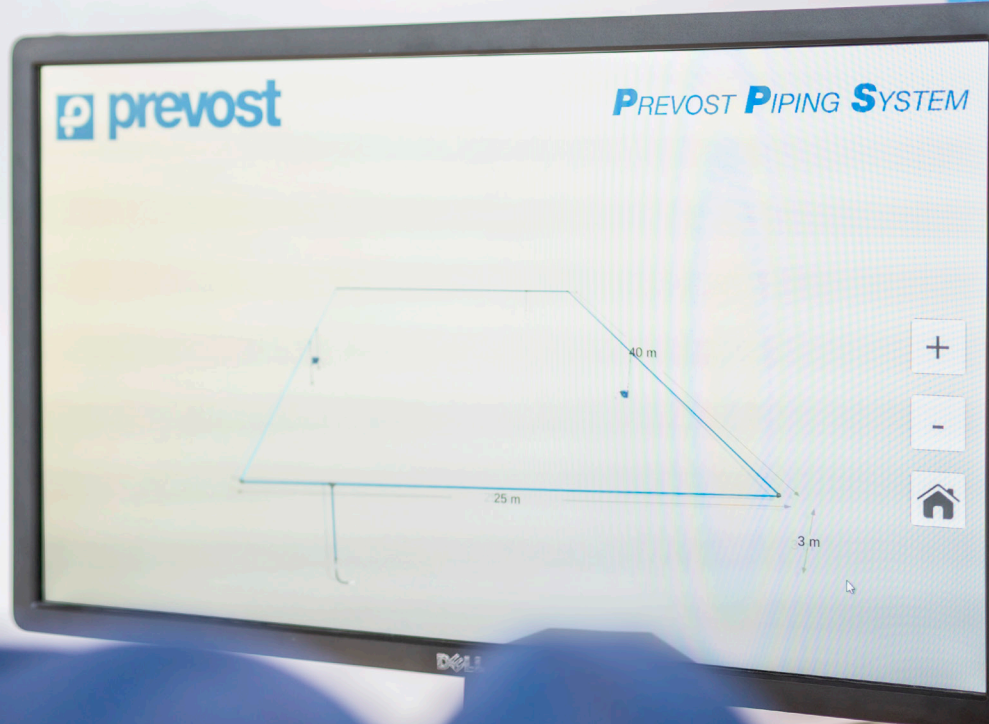

Whether you are a distributor, installer or service technician Prevost offers training courses that cover a variety of topics.

⊕ We customize our classes based on your compressed air business needs and will adapt them to your employee's knowledge level.

Our goals

Is to provide you with the fundamental understanding of

- Compressed air distribution
- System design best practices
- Utilizing compressed air power
- On site installation procedures

Gain a better understanding and in depth knowledge of Prevost's entire range innovative equipment and tools.

Our courses are designed to enhance your sales and marketing skills by providing you with information to better serve your customer.

How can I schedule a training?

We can schedule training classes to accommodate your availability.

⊕ Contact your local Prevost Regional Sales Manager to arrange a date or email us: sales.corp@prevostusa.com.

Where can training take place?
- Meet at our fully equipped training centers in Europe and Greenville (SC)
- Our Regional Sales Managers can visit your place of business or another designated location
- Host a video conference.

prevost

?

Who is the training for?

End users, installers or technicians looking to master and broaden their compressed air knowledge.

- Engineers
- Architects
- Design office technicians
- Technical sales engineers
- Sales persons, Remote sales persons
- Maintenance technicians
- Installers

Training curriculum

- Fundamentals of compressed air
- Connections, fittings and couplers
- Designing air systems
- Workstations and safety
- Air treatment

Prevost certified

- Gain technical and practical information
- Specific calculator
- Certificate of achievement
- Provide course feedback

ADVANTAGES OF PREVOST TRAINING

- Over 40 years in the compressed air industry
- We provide experienced trainers
- Improved fluid distribution control
- Hands on training and testing with our products

- Develop technical and sales skills
- Learn to match the right product for each application
- Free training